

E. O. A. C. Community Action Agency's, Susan Copeland has been a dedicated member of the Board of Directors for 30 years.

Susan is a Texas licensed Social Worker and state licensed Activity Professional and Consultant, certified in Gerontology. She is a trained Hospice volunteer and is Baylor certified in Non-Profit Management. She has over 35 years of experience in social work, senior services, and volunteer management. Susan also adjunct teaches at McLennan Community College and presents leadership, motivational workshops, and volunteer trainings both nationally and statewide.

Susan's father, Mr. Floyd Saddler was a charter member of E. O. A. C Board of Directors beginning in 1966. Susan's mother, Mayella Saddler, later joined the EOAC board and served from 1991 to 1992. After Mrs. Saddler's passing, Susan assumed her mother's position on the EOAC board in February of 1992.

The agency is honored and very grateful for the many years of service this family has devoted to EOAC.

Susan is a servant leader and sits on a number of boards and non-profits as well as membership with several outreach task forces that serve communities across the Central Texas region.

A life-long resident of the Waco area, she and her husband, Charles, of 48 years have raised four children and enjoy spending time spoiling their seven perfect grandchildren.
